Attachment of property under the Income Tax Act

3408. SHRI SURESH PACHOURI: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are considering extension of the scheme for attaching of property under the Income Tax Act to more cities.

(b) if so, whether Government are also considering to appoint appropriate authority in each city separately for the purpose;

(c) whether any such authority has been set up; and

(d) if so, what is the total number of cities which have been brought under this scheme and to what extent the attachment of properties have been made during the last three month?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI AJIT PANJA): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) No, Sir.

(c) and (d) Till date six cities namely, Delhi, Bombay. Calcutta, Madras, Bangalore and Ahmedabad have been brought under the purview of the provisions of Chapter XXC of the Income Tax Act.

During the last threee months (i.e. in April, May and June) 71 pre-emptive purchase orders under section 269UD (1) have been passed.

Reorganisation of States

3409. SHRI SURESH PACHOURI: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be plaeased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the Reorganisation of States in 1956 had left a number of boundaries of States unfixed;

(b if so, whether the boundary disputes amongst States since then have created great discontentment among the people of the affected States;

(c) whether it is a fact that a number of States have desired that there should be further reorganisation of States; and

(d) if so, what is Government response thereto?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI SANTOSH MOHAN DEV): (a) and (b) No, Sir. The reorganisation of States in 1956 was effected through Parliament Laws. Territorial boundary of each State is indicated in the First Schedule to the Constitution.

It is, however, a fact that territorial claims and counter-claims have been made by the States and occasionally these disputes have given rise to law and order problems also.

(c) No fomral request for reorganisation of States has been received from any State Government.

(d) Does not arise.

Ban on arms in religious places

3410. SHR SURESH PACHOURI: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the Prime Minister has issued instructions to Government to prepare a legislation for ban of arms in the Golden Temple or other religious places in the country;

(b) if so, whether any concrete legislation in this regard is being considered; and

(c) if so, whether this legis'ation will be brought during the current session of Parliament; if not, whether views of all religious bodies have been taken into consideration?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS AND THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI P. CHIDAMBARAM): (a) to (c) Section 4 of the Religious Institution (Prevention of Misuse) Ordinance, 1988, promulgated on 26th May, 1988, provides that no religious institution or manager thereof shall allow the entry of any arms or ammunition or of any person carrying any arms or ammunition into the religious institution. However, the wearing and carrying of a kirpan by any person professing the Sikh religion; or any arms which are used as part of any religious ceremony or ritual of the institution as established by customs or usage are exempted. A Bill to replace the Ordinance has since been passed by the Lok Sabha on 11-8-1988 and by the Rajya Sabha on 19-8-88.

Export of alcohol and Molasses

3411. SHRI SURESH PACHOURI: Will the Minister of COMMERCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government propose to authorise more exports of alcohol to take care of the glut situation that is likely to develop in the domestic market in the current alcohol year;

(b) whether any alternative proposal for export of molasses with the similar object of disposing of the huge stock piled up with the sugar mills is also being examined by the Petroleum Ministry; and

(c) if so, what is the main decision arrived at and to what extent it will be helpful?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE (SHRI P. R DAS MUNSHI): (a) to (c) In view of the good crop of sugarcane, the country is likely to have surplus quantities of alcohol and molasses. It has, therefore been decided to allow export of surplus quantities. Export of 500 lakh litres of alcohol and 4 lakh tonnes of molasses has already been allowed. The export of alcohol and molasses will ease the pressure on the sugar factories and distilleries.

New strategy to boost Exports

3412. SHRI SURESH PACHOURI: Will the Minister of COMMERCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether limited foreign exchange market scheme is one of the measures being examined by Government as a part of the new strategy to boost exports;

(b) if so, what are the other details of the schemes that are being considered in this regard;

(c) whether the strategy has been prepared only after the Planning Commission had given its report in this regard; and
